Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-51 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a dispensing head in combination with the other claimed limitations of claims 1,24 and 29:

"actuating means for actuating the dispensing element and for causing the conduit to communicate with the inside of the receptacle, the actuating means having a dispensing orifice formed at the extremity of a channel, wherein said channel has a length greater than a diameter of the dispensing orifice, and wherein the actuating means are movable relative to the dispensing conduit between at least two positions, said at least two positions including a first position in which the dispensing orifice communicates with a first passage of the at least two passages, and a second position in which the dispensing orifice communicates with a second passage of the at least two passages".

Further, the prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a packaging and dispensing unit in combination with the other claimed limitations of claim 30:

"wherein another end of said channel is in selective communication with one said at least two passages of said conduit of said first assembly, and said second assembly is rotatable with respect to said first assembly to determine which passage of the at least two passages of said conduit establishes selective communication with said channel"

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. La Ware et al. 5,503,303, Demarest et al. 5,649,645, De Laforcade (RE38,022) and Brunerie et al. (2005/0184093) disclose other types of dispensing head for a receptacle.
4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Frederick C. Nicolas whose telephone number is (571)-272-4931. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Michael Y. Mar, can be reached on 571-272-4906. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
